Two veteran economists team up to provide an overview of basic economic principles in this textbook for students, business executives, and entrepreneurs. Kaela B. Mulenga and Francis L. Mupakati explore basic economic concepts and theories, clearly communicating their ideas in essay-type model answers that highlight how banks, free trade, inflation, and more affect the economy. The textbook reveals the logic economists use and the educated assumptions they make when conducting economic analyses pertaining to real-world scenarios. It provides a detailed overview of the free market enterprise system as well as a glossary of essential economic terms. The authors answer questions such as: • What are the major features of a free market economy? • What factors affect the elasticity of supply? • How does the market determine the equilibrium of price? In today's fast-paced digital information age, one must possess the tools to make sense of what's happening. Get the knowledge you need to respond to business challenges with this important resource.

Wengraf provides a comprehensive theoretical and practical guide to the planning, conduct, and interpretative analysis of data by semi-structured interviewing methods. Forthright and frank in his comments about the limitations and practical implications of varying choices which investigators have to make in designing their research projects. Reading this text is like having a tough but expert and caring mentor who wants you to do the best research possible, but will not hesitate to tell you when your ideology and assumptions skew that possibility' - Vincent W Hevern, Le Moyne College, USA Unique in its conceptual coherence and the level of practical detail, this book provides a comprehensive resource for those concerned with the practice of semi-structured interviewing, the most commonly used interview approach in social research, and in particular for in-depth, biographic narrative interviewing. It covers the full range of practices from the identification of topics through to strategies for writing up research findings in diverse ways.

Would You Rather? Family Challenge! Edition SAGE

Winner of the Best Columnist of the Year at the British Liars' Awards and Britain's finest satirist, O'Farrell takes dead aim in Global Village Idiot at cell phones, awards ceremonies, genetic sheep splicers, America's right wing cabal of dunces, dunderheads, dimwits, and the Big 'D' himself. "Just when we thought the lawlessness in Iraq was over," O'Farrell observes, "even more blatant incidents of looting have begun. With handkerchiefs masking their faces, two rioters roughly the height of George Bush and Donald Rumsfeld kicked in the gates of the largest oilfield and grabbed the keys of the gasoline trucks. 'Yee-haw! It's all ours! Millions of barrels of the stuff' they laughed. 'Yup!' added the leader ' and this mask guarantees my anonymousity!' So after all these years there really is such a person as the Thief of Baghdad. Except strangely his accent sounded vaguely Texan." A writer for the groundbreaking television show Spitting Image and contributor to the screenplay for the hit movie Chicken Run, O'Farrell meticulously researched his conclusions "by spending five minutes on the internet and then giving up." And while O'Farrell's sharpest barbs and stingers have often been written to come out of the mouths of grotesque puppets and Claymation chickens, this time around he keeps the best lines for himself: "With the election of the 43rd President of the United States, the global village is complete," O'Farrell writes. "It has its own global village idiot."
