In Potential Images Dario Gamboni explores ambiguity in modern art, considering images that rely to a great degree on a projected or imaginative response from viewers to achieve their effect. Ambiguity became increasingly important in late 19th- and early 20th-century aesthetics, as is evidenced in works by such artists as Redon, Cezanne, Gauguin, Ensor and the Nabis. Similarly, the Cubists subverted traditional representational conventions, requiring their viewers to decipher images to extract their full meanings. The same device was taken up in the various experiments leading to abstraction. For example, it was Kandinsky's intention that his work could be interpreted in both figurative and non-figurative ways, and Duchamp's Readymades suggested the radical conclusion that 'it is the beholder who makes the picture'. These invitations to viewers to participate in the process of artistic communication had social and political implications, as they accorded artist and beholder symmetrical, almost interchangeable, roles.

War: Pariah

DC Comics
The scourge of Anti-Eternia is unleashed on the Multiverse! Blazing a trail across the dimensions, he's devastating each version of Eternia and stealing its power. Now it's up to a ragtag team of surviving He-Men to recruit the one man in existence who might save them: Prince Keldor, the man who would be Skeletor! This series brings together the many various iterations of the fan-favorite franchise, including the 1980s Filmation cartoon series and the 2002 animated series and toy line-as the fate of Eternia is at stake! Collects He-Man and the Masters of the Multiverse #1-6. Western Intelligence, Propaganda and Special Operations Harvill Press The war for Eternia reaches its epic conclusion! The Eternity War seems all but over. Hordak has seized the full powers of Grayskull-now, nowhere in the universe is safe from his wrath. Only He-Man has the ability to stop him...but He-Man is no more. King Adam surrendered his power to save his people, and now the armies of Eternia march on a hopeless quest to battle a near-omnipotent opponent. But elsewhere on Eternia, a strange partnership has formed between Adam's sister, She-Ra, and his greatest enemy, Skeletor. Skeletor has a plan to turn Hordak's own powers against him and free the universe from the threat of the Evil Horde. But Skeletor is not known for his kind heart and generosity. If he has a plan to bring down Hordak, will it only serve to make Skeletor an even deadlier threat than Hordak ever was? And if He-Man is truly gone, who will be able to stand up to Skeletor when he is the ultimate power in the universe? dWriter Dan Abnett (EARTH 2: SOCIETY, AQUAMAN) and artist Pop Mhan (DC UNIVERSE VS. THE MASTERS OF THE UNIVERSE), along with He-Man's Head Writer Rob David, turn the world of HE-MAN AND THE MASTERS OF THE UNIVERSE on its ear. Collects issues #7-15.

The Clandestine

Cold War in Asia, 1945-65 DC The scourge of Anti-Eternia is unleashed on the Multiverse! Blazing a trail across the dimensions, he's devastating each version of Eternia and stealing its power. Now it's up to a ragtag team of surviving He-Men to recruit the one man in existence who might save them: Prince Keldor, the man who would be Skeletor! This all-new miniseries features the most iconic eras and beloved takes on the Masters of the Universe! He-Man: The Eternity War Vol. 2 DC Skeletor has returned! After his dramatic appearance last issue, the question remains: Will he fight alongside He-Man and She-Ra...or against them? All Things Georgian Routledge Take a romp through the long eighteenth-century in this collection of 25 short tales. Marvel at the Queen's Ass, gaze at the celestial heavens through the eyes of the past and be amazed by the equestrian feats of the Norwich Nymph. Journey to the debauched French court at Versailles, travel to Covent Garden and take your seat in a box at the theatre and, afterwards, join the mile-high club in a new-fangled hot air balloon. Meet actresses, whores and high-born ladies, politicians, inventors, royalty and criminals as we travel through the Georgian era in all its glorious and gruesome glory. In roughly chronological order, covering the reign of the four Georges, 1714-1730 and set within the framework of the main events of the era, these tales are accompanied by over 100 stunning color illustrations. Maternal and Infant

Actions have consequences
! He-Man is learning this lesson through visions of Eternia's future. It is thirty years after He-Man defeated Hordak, but Eternia is a far from tranquil place. Is this a future that is written in stone? Or will He-Man be able to choose the correct path to peace on Eternia?
Tales from the Long Eighteenth Century DC

What happens when one of Germany's most important writers, himself a Muslim, immerses himself in the world of Christian art? In this book, Navid Kermani is awestruck by a religion full of sacrifice and lamentation, love and wonder, the irrational and the unfathomable, the deeply human and the divine – a Christianity that today's Christians rarely speak of so earnestly, boldly and enthusiastically. With the open-minded curiosity of a non-believer – or rather a believer in another faith – Kermani engages with Christian art in its great richness and diversity. The result is an enchanting reflection which reinvests in Christianity both its spectacular beauty and its terror. Kermani struggles with the cross, falls in love at the sight of Mary, experiences the Orthodox Mass and appreciates the greatness of St Francis. He teaches us to see the questions of our present-day lives in the pictures of old masters such as Botticelli, Caravaggio and Rembrandt – not with lectures on art history or theology, but with an intelligent eye for the essential details and the underlying relations to seemingly remote worlds, to literature and to mystical Islam. Kermani's poetic school of seeing draws us in as we are carried along by his unique perspective on Christianity, rekindling our interest in great art at the same time. We are captivated by his unique and brilliant Islamic reading of the West.
